

Online activities

Here are a few suggestions of educational revision and game websites you can use with your child at home for Maths, reading and writing.

Below are a few websites your child should be going on every day

Bug club (Reading comprehension)

<https://www.activelearnprimary.co.uk/login?c=0>

Khan academy (Maths)

<https://www.khanacademy.org/>

Education city (Maths and GPS)

<http://www.educationcity.com/>

Maths

BBC bitesize

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/ks2/>

Hit the Button times table games

<http://www.wmnet.org.uk/resources/gordon/Hit%20the%20button%20v9.swf>

Times table test

<http://resources.woodlands-junior.kent.sch.uk/maths/timestable/>

Times table grid games BBC

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/skillswise/game/mal3tabl-game-tables-grid-find>

Build a shed conversion game BBC

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/skillswise/game/ma22leng-game-build-a-shed>

Converting fraction, decimals and percentages

http://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/ks2/maths/number/fractions\_to\_decimals/play/

Revising shapes

<http://www.primaryresources.co.uk/maths/mathsE3.htm>

Sorting shapes

http://www.familylearning.org.uk/shape\_games.html

Reading

There are a range of online reading material that you can access at home which will help insure your child reads both fiction and non-fiction texts.

Bug club

Cbbc news round

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/>

Magic Key books

<http://www.magickeys.com/books/>

Free online newspapers for kids

<http://www.free-onlinenewspapers.com/free-online-newspapers-for-kids.html>

Diary of a wimpy kid

<http://www.funbrain.com/journal/Journal.html?ThisJournalDay=1&ThisPage=2>

Oxford owl (you need to set up an account then books are free to access)

<http://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/reading-owl/find-a-book>

Story time for me

<http://storytimeforme.com/>

Britannica encyclopedia for kids

<http://kids.britannica.com/>

Fact Monster

<http://www.factmonster.com/>

General Maths websites

<http://www.crickweb.co.uk/ks2numeracy.html>

<http://primarygamesarena.com/Key-Stage-2>

<http://www.mathszone.co.uk/>

<http://www.math-exercises-for-kids.com/>